

What is the Cadetship?

A NSW Government-funded “earn and learn” initiative that gives 25 students each year:

- ✓ Nationally recognised qualification - Certificate IV in Housing
- ✓ 12 months of full-time paid work with a housing organisation
- ✓ A chance to build a meaningful career in community housing

With hybrid lesson delivery (online and face-to-face) during work hours, you'll learn from specialist trainers, get 1:1 support, be placed with a community housing provider close to your home, and be allocated a dedicated mentor in your workplace to help you succeed.

The cadetship is for...

Residents of New South Wales aged 20 or older who belong to one or more of the following groups:

- ✓ unemployed young people aged 20 - 24
- ✓ people aged 25 or older
 - living in social housing or on the waitlist, or
 - in crisis / supported accommodation, or
 - receiving rent assistance
- ✓ migrants and refugees
- ✓ Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- ✓ people living with a disability

If you fit at least one of these groups, you are eligible to apply.

Outcomes

77%

of graduates secure ongoing employment in community housing or another sector

90%

of 2025 graduates would recommend the Cadetship Program

What do past cadets say?

"The Cadetship opened up new doors that I never knew were possible for someone like me. It helped me find passion and purpose again."

– Kayleigh, 2025 Cadetship Program graduate

"The support made me want to continue to learn. I've signed up for uni... and CHIA's Cadetship Program made that possible. If it can happen for me, it can happen for you."

– Jenieva, 2024 Cadetship Program graduate

"I secured a full-time position. I've made myself a career. I'm really excited for what the future brings."

– Savannah, 2025 Cadetship Program graduate
